

7th DHI Conference

No History No Future

 The 7th DHI Conference will be held in Stockholm, the capital city of Sweden, Aug 4 – 8, 2009, hosted by Swedish Deaf History Society (SDHS).

We are happy to have the conference just in the beautiful Stockholm, because we at the same time celebrate two-hundredth anniversary of Deaf Education in Sweden, which started in Stockholm. Full details about the conference, registration, accommodation, travel and information about conference venue can be found later in the spring/summer at this website:

www.sdhs.se/dhi2009

Call for Papers

You are welcome to submit a proposal for presentation at the conference.

- Deaf Educational History
- Deaf Movement in the Society
- Deaf Women's History
- Social, Cultural and Political Situation of the Deaf since 1880
- Deaf Biographies
- Deaf Movement in the Future
- Future and Goal of Deaf History Research
- The Status, Definition and Contribution of Deaf History Studies
- Role of DHI for Deaf History

Other topics are also welcome!

Important dates:

Deadline for Abstracts due: October 1st, 2008

Notification of Acceptance due: February 1st, 2009

Deadline for PowerPoint and Revised and Final version of Papers due: May 1st, 2009

Deadline for full article: October. 15th 2009 (for the proceedings)

For more information, contact: dhi2009@sdhs.se

Conference Team:

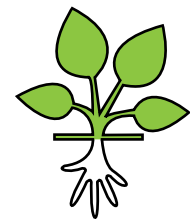

Swedish Deaf History Society (SDHS)

C/o Carl Magnus Lindgren

Hasselgatan 38

703 60 Örebro

Sweden

Warm welcome to the 7th Conference of Deaf History International in Stockholm 2009!